Looking for a City

Looking for a City...it was said Abraham could never build a permanent house for himself after he had seen the city whose builder and maker is God...

Let's keep our eyes on that real estate couched in the clouds, just behind that thin blue veil, coming down from God out of heaven. With every pain, with every sick relative, with every financial struggle, with every temptation and trial...let us keep thinking of that home beyond the sky, and looking for a city.

This week has been tough but a week of recovery for several. John Cooke, Tammy's father, is doing better and going home from the hospital. Sis. Heldenbrand is looking forward to being here Sunday. Sandy still needs our prayers, but is doing much better. Continue to pray for John Hooks.

The week has flown by and I am getting ready to leave for a few days. I will be in May, OK., preaching a revival for Aaron Johnson, a friend of this church. Please support the concern with prayers that God will work in our midst. Bro. Jerry is scheduled to fill in for us this next Sunday. Thank you, Bro. Jerry, for being faithful and helping out. I will return approximately Wednesday the 29th. My cell phone is 720-289-5956 for emergencies. The house parsonage phone is 303-986-5866. Regina will be here.
